Brief Review of Events held in 2017

The year started with us bringing Barbara Brann from Australia to both Whangarei and Kerikeri. The focus was Securing Junior Literacy Skills for Year 0 - 3, and Supporting Older Priority Learners with a day workshop and a dinner meeting. This event was run in conjunction with Dyslexia Plus. Onerahi School hosted our Spotlight on Schools event sharing their progress in Accelerated Literacy Learning. In Term 2 we held our seminar day "Seminar for Success" with keynote speakers Dr Melinda Webber and Viv Aitken along with 2 workshop sessions.

Term 3 we held a dinner meeting mainly for beginning teachers and their mentors. Joy Allcock ran 2 excellent sessions in Whangarei and Kerikeri - Trouble Shooting Reading Difficulties and Foundations for Learning. Our bi-annual Mystery Bus Tour was held in Term 4 visiting 3 local schools showing diversity and the different journeys they are on. All of our events have been well-attended, much appreciated by teachers and provided worthwhile professional development.

A collection of books were donated to the Emergency Department at Whangarei Base Hospital for use in the waiting room and a large collection of picture books and novels were donated to the two Women's Refuges for children/teenagers who stay there to take home.

Key Issues

Having a wider representation of schools on the committee.

Ensuring professional development event information is reaching the right people

Please complete the information requested via google docs or by emailing to secretary@nzla.org.nz by Saturday 31st March.

AGM – so tough to make this be a beneficial time for inviting new people to. RT Lit event was a good informative session. Maths meets Literacy event awesome, well facilitated and lots of takeaways. Seminar Day is hard work, Ian was an incredible speaker – they both cost a lot of money, numbers okay. Spotlight event great turn out - teachers do enjoy low key events Several of us went to conference. Sheena & Louise workshop was practical, numbers were low due to time of year and I think there is a bit of burnout with their material. They have a new book coming out next year, invite them. Scotty linked into debating and speech competition, we supported them for some prize money – real space in the market to support this. TTLA Delegate's Report

Brief review of events held in 2018

Our AGM in March included a session to attract educators. The local RTLits talked about their role and how to access support. Also in Term 1 we held our popular dinner meeting with the topic of "Maths meets Literacy". This was primarily aimed at beginning teachers and their mentors but was open to all.

The annual Term 2 seminar day "Gaining Momentum" included breakout sessions with both of our keynote speakers. This was a first for TTLA and both sessions returned very positive feedback. Linda Cheer from Longworth Education focused on play-based learning and Dr Ian Hunter from Write That Essay excited attendees with ways to teach writing that give quality and motivation. These sessions complimented the keynote sessions and allowed the presenters to go deeper and wider. We also had excellent workshops and trader resources. At this seminar Rex Morris was made a life member for his services to both TTLA and the NZLA.

Our Term 3 Spotlight on Schools event visited Kaurihohore School to see how play-based learning and their use of Mantle of the Expert impact literacy learning.

Another dinner meeting in October was facilitated by Louise Dempsey and Sheena Cameron, "Increasing Student Talk During Reading to Enhance Comprehension". Children's books were presented to the local Women's Refuge at the end of 2017 and in 2018 the recipients were 27 dental clinics in Northland. A library event for students was planned but had to be cancelled due to school circumstances. This is going to go ahead next year instead.

Please note, sent to Mal, but not yet published.

Sheena Cameron & Louise Dempsey- Increasing student talk during reading to enhance comprehension

Posted on November 29, 2018

'Increasing student talk during reading to enhance comprehension' led by Sheena Cameron and Louise Dempster attracted 40 Northlanders on Wednesday 31st October 2018 to a dinner PD event hosted by Tai Tokerau Literacy Association.

Sheena and Louise expertly led the attendees through 5 aspects of this topic, providing practical information, supported by key points on both power point slides and in video clips. Each section was followed by time to reflect and share as table groupings, with the opportunity to complete a summary of recommendations table.

Teachers working with Junior school classes through to Intermediate classes all had plenty of practical takeaways from the evening; ones that involve students' oral language supporting what they had read and strengthening their comprehension skills at many different levels.

Thanks, Louise and Sheena.
