

NZLA SERVICE AWARD

THIS CERTIFICATE IS AWARDED TO

Sally Morch

The NZLA would like to acknowledge Sally's dedication, mahi and commitment to the NZLA, Wellington, Wairarapa and Taranaki Literacy Associations. Sally Morch was an active member and president of the Wellington Literacy Association; her leadership was instrumental in making the 2003 conference a success. She founded the Wairarapa Literacy Association and is now a member of the Taranaki Literacy Association; she has been a NZLA delegate for both associations. Sally has attended many conferences and coordinated the Books for Oceania stand. Her liaison with the exhibitors has been exemplary; this ensured that their participation was a positive and successful experience. Sally was also an NZLA exec member and treasurer and an active member of the International Development in Oceania Committee from 2011-2015.
