This NZLA Service Award is presented to Sharon Ross in recognition of her significant contribution to literacy education at both the local level and nationally. As a long-standing and invaluable member of the Waiariki Literacy Association, formerly Bay of Plenty Reading Association, Sharon held a variety of roles and was a key team member hosting many local events and co-convening the NZLA conference in 2011. At a national level Sharon was an exec member and then President from 2006-2008. She also held the positions of NZLA secretary and treasurer, revamping financial reporting systems.
