

THE UNDERSTORY OF AOTEAROA NZ LITERACY INNOVATION

Professor Janet (Jan) Gaffney

Step into a transformative period (1962–1989) where early literacy education in Aotearoa NZ underwent a groundbreaking evolution. Jan will share captivating video snippets of interviews with the visionary leaders whose innovative approaches not only redefined literacy learning and teaching in Aotearoa but also influenced practices around the globe. Their words in their voices speak to the literacy issues we grapple with today. Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear the stories of legacy leaders and learn from their enduring impact.

Ahorangi | Professor and Kaitohu | Director,
Te Puna Reo Pohewa | The Marie Clay Research Centre
Waipapa Taumata Rau | The University of Auckland

Wednesday 18 June, 2025
4pm - 5.30 NZST

NZLA member: $25 pp
Non NZLA member: $40 pp
ITE students $15 pp
Prices include GST

REGISTER NOW

<https://forms.gle/ovcXretiGmQQCFzw9>

The session will be recorded and made available to all who register.
This webinar is ideal for: teachers, teacher educators, policy makers and researchers.